Student Engagement - not a new thing

- 1986 – NUS produced first class rep training pack.
- 1990's – professionalisation of student academic representative function.
- 1996 – 30 SU staff supporting educational representation.
- Mid 1990's – enterprise in Higher Education project led to more staff development and further focus on training.
- 1994 Act – attack on student unions which helped strengthen the movement
- 2002 – Quality Enhancement Framework – student engagement a key pillar.
- 2003 – sparqs.

Our Vision is of:

Students making a positive and rewarding difference to their own and others' educational experience, helping shape the nature of learning and contributing to the overall success of Scotland's universities and colleges.

@sparqs_scotland

To make this Vision a reality our Mission is to Ensure students are able to engage as partners in all levels of assurance and enhancement activities including:

- Commenting on and shaping their own learning experience.
- Taking an active part in formal student engagement mechanisms, including quality processes and strategic decision making.
- Shaping the development of the student experience at national level.
